A BILL

To Be Entitled

"An Act to amend Article 7043 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended by Acts of the Third Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, page 527, Chapter 23, relating to ascertaining tax rate, and declaring an emergency."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 7043 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, 1925, as amended by Acts of the Third Called Session, Forty-first Legislature, page 527, Chapter 23, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 7043. Ascertaining Tax Rate.—Within five days after the Comptroller has received such certified statements from every assessor within this State, said board shall meet for the purpose of calculating the ad valorem rate of taxes to be collected for the State and public free school purposes. In calculating said rates the board shall calculate the same by the following rules and upon the following basis: They shall find by adding together all the property subject to taxation in all counties as shown by the certified statements returned by the assessors, the total valuation of all property within this State subject to ad valorem taxes. They shall find by adding together the sums appropriated by the Legislature, which will or which may become due by the State during the following fiscal year, the total sum of which will or which may become due by the State, during the following fiscal year. They shall find, by adding all sums paid into the State Treasury as delinquent ad valorem taxes and interest and penalties thereon during the first half of the current calendar year and the latter half of the preceding calendar year and all sums which may be expected to be paid as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than ad valorem taxes, the total sum expected to be collected from all said sources. They shall find by subtracting from the total sum which will or which may become due by the State during the succeeding fiscal year the total sum which may be expected to be paid as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than current ad valorem taxes, the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by current ad valorem taxes. They shall add to such remainder twenty per cent of said remainder. They shall divide the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes added to twenty per cent of such total sum by the quotient of the total valuation of all property within this State divided by one hundred. The quotient shall be the number of cents on the one hundred dollars ($100) valuation to be collected for the current year for State purposes; provided that said quotient shall not be run to more than three decimals. The rate for State purposes shall never exceed the rate fixed by law on the one hundred dollars ($100) valuation of property; provided, however, that the rate to be fixed as provided herein for the years 1931 and 1932 shall not exceed sixty-nine (69) cents on the one hundred dollars ($100) valuation of property; and provided further the sixty-nine (69) cents shall include the seven (7) cent Confederate pension tax. In calculating the rate to be collected for public free school purposes, said board shall take into consideration the number of children in the State within the scholastic age, to be determined from the most recent official school census; and shall fix a rate that will yield and produce for such fiscal year seventeen and one-half dollars ($17.50) per capita for all the children within the scholastic age, as shown by said scholastic census; provided, the rate so fixed for any year shall never exceed the rate fixed by law."

Sec. 2. The fact that increasing the general ad valorem tax rate over the rate now existing will cause untold hardship, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity and that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days should be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage as provided for in Section 1 hereof, and it is so enacted.

Mr. Moffett moved that the report be adopted.

Mr. Ray moved that the report be not adopted and that a new committee be appointed to adjust the difference between the two houses on the bill.

Mr. Howsley moved the previous question on the pending motions, and the main question was ordered.

Question first recurring on the motion by Mr. Ray, it was lost.

The Speaker then laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment.

H. B. No. 22, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Article 7065, Revised Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Chapter 88, Section 17, Acts Second Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Petsch made the following points of order:

Raising the Constitutionality of the Brooks Bill.

I make the point of order that the above bill in proposing to divert taxes levied and collected by the people of Texas for the benefit of the general welfare and to be used for the purpose of building and maintaining the system of State highways, directed to be deposited in the State Treasury in a fund known as the Highway Gasoline Tax Fund, by taking one-fourth of said funds and appropriating the same to the payment of the individual debts of some counties in Texas and some individual road districts in Texas, is unconstitutional for the following reasons, to wit:

First.

Because the bill attempts to take funds belonging to all the people of Texas and collected from all the people of Texas, for the purpose of discharging the debts contracted and due from certain distinct subdivisions of this State and which debts were created without the consent of the voters of the whole State and without the consent of every county and particular subdivision of this State, other than the individual subdivision creating said debt.

Second.

Because it seeks to shift the debts of some individual counties and some individual road districts, and make them the debt and obligation of the entire State without first obtaining the consent of the voters of the State by means of an election held for such purpose.

Third.

Because it seeks to divert by legislative action the use of the special Highway Gasoline Tax Fund from its original purpose, that of improving and maintaining the system of State highways of the State of Texas to the different purpose, namely: Of applying the same to the payment of county and road district debts, in violation of Section 7, Article 8, of the Constitution of Texas.

Fourth.

Because it seeks to levy a tax and impose a burden on the people of Texas, other than to raise revenue sufficient for the economical administration of the State government, and for other than any of the purposes specified in Section 48, Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas.

Fifth.

Because it seeks to create a debt against the State of Texas, and seeks to lend and pledge the credit of the State for the payment of present liabilities of the several municipal corporations in the nature of road districts and the several counties of Texas who have heretofore individually, by means of their own separate actions, created debts, and which is in violation of Section 50, of Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas.

Sixth.

Because the said bill proposes the granting and authorizes the granting of public money to municipal corporations and subdivisions of this State in violation of the express provision to the contrary of Section 51, Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas.

Seventh.

Because the bill does not come within the Governor's call, and for said reason its consideration is in violation of Section 40, of Article 3, of the Constitution of this State.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,

Austin, Texas, September 22, 1931.

Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed

H. B. No. 33, A bill to be entitled "An Act waiving the right of the State of Texas to enter upon, for the purpose of development of mines, minerals and mineral rights, including oil and gas thereunder, all lands heretofore granted, or that may hereafter be granted, under Article 8225, of the Revised Statutes, to any navigation district, and by such district conveyed, or that may hereafter be conveyed, to the United States of America for navigation purposes, so long as such lands shall be used by the United States of America, or such navigation district, for navigation purposes, and declaring an emergency," with amendments.

Respectfully,

BOB BARKER,

Secretary of the Senate.

RECESS.

On motion of Mr. Hardy, the House, at 12 o'clock m., took recess to 2 o'clock p. m. today.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Speaker overruled the points of order.

Mr. Anderson raised a point of order on further consideration of the bill, on the ground that the House cannot consider a House bill on Senate bill day until the Senate bills have been disposed of.

PROVIDING FOR A COMMITTEE TO ATTEND THE FUNERAL OF THE HON. WILLIAM HOLDER.

Mr. Burns of Walker moved that a suitable floral offering be sent to the funeral of the Hon. William Holder and that a committee from the House of Representatives be appointed to attend the funeral.

COMMUNICATION FROM JUDGE
WALTER L. WRAY.

On motion of Mr. Bounds, the following communication was ordered printed in the Journal:

Hillsboro, Texas,
September 21, 1931.

Hon. W. R. Bounds, House of Representatives, Austin, Texas.

Dear Mr. Bounds: I notice from the Dallas News that the Governor has submitted to the Legislature the question of salary reduction for State officers, including the district judges of the State.

Under present financial conditions and the inability of taxpayers to meet their obligations, I believe it necessary to make some reduction at this time, and you are advised that any reduction you may see fit to make in the salary allotted to me as district judge will be entirely satisfactory.

While my entire time is now wholly taken by the increasing business of this court, the question is not altogether one of salary, but is a question of how well I may serve the citizenship of this district in the capacity of district judge.

With very best wishes, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

WALTER L. WRAY,

Judge, Sixty-sixth Judicial District.

SENATE BILL NO. 8 ON SECOND READING.

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to third reading,

S. B. No. 8, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing relief for the Valentine Independent School District, in order to aid said district in repairing and rehabilitating its school building which was seriously damaged and rendered untenable and unsafe for use for school purposes by the earthquake on Sunday, August 16, 1931, making an appropriation for that purpose, and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Vaughan raised a point of order on further consideration of the bill, on the ground that the subject matter contained in the bill has not been submitted by the Governor.

The Speaker declined to rule on the point of order, stating that he would submit the matter to the House for its decision.

The House sustained the point of order.

Mr. Burns of Walker moved to reconsider the vote by which the House sustained the point of order.

Mr. Vaughan moved to table the motion to reconsider.

Mr. Satterwhite offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 26, Expressing appreciation to the Hon. Harry Crozier.

Whereas, Mr. Harry Bengé Crozier, one of the staff correspondents of one of the South's greatest newspapers, The Dallas Morning News, has accepted a highly responsible business offer from a New York concern, and for that reason will leave Texas within the next few days to make his home in New York City, and,

Whereas, Mr. Crozier has for many years covered the sessions of the Texas Legislature as staff correspondent of The Dallas News, and in such capacity the members of the Legislature have long recognized Mr. Crozier as one of the ablest and most impartial newspaper correspondents in Texas, as well as a Texas citizen of the highest integrity and character, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Second Called Session of the Forty-second Legislature, of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That while we sincerely regret the removal of our beloved friend and citizen, Harry Bengé Crozier, from the State of Texas to the City of New York, yet we extend to him our heartfelt congratulations upon his new business connections, and in doing so we wish for him the very best of success and happiness, and should there come to him at any time in the future a longing to return to his beloved native State of Texas and renew his associations with his legion of admiring friends, we assure him now that he will be received with open arms and a joyous welcome, and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be instructed to have a copy of this resolution properly enrolled, and present to Mr. Crozier a copy of same.
